LOVE CABARET
Wednesday, Feb. 12th, 2020 at 7pm
First Presbyterian Church, Collingwood
Our annual celebration of love is a popular event, but this year it will be held in a wonderful, cozy and intimate setting at First Presbyterian Church. You may never know who is sitting beside you, it could be one of the artists! This cabaret is packed with talent from the musical theatre world & beyond. Add RED CARPET tickets to your purchase and attend a post-show reception with the artists following the show!

GIRL'S NITE OUT
Friday, March 6th, 2020 at 8pm
Normandy Room, Collingwood Legion
Back by popular demand after last year’s SOLD OUT show! Girls Nite Out is an all-female, all funny, mix of stand-up and improv comedy, led by the fearless & fabulous, Elvira Kurt, and including Canadian Comedy Award Winners, CBC darlings and Second City alumni. Grab your friends and join Theatre Collingwood for a fun-filled evening celebrating WOMEN!

ADAM'S UNPLUGGED PUPPET PARTY
Starring Adam Proulx & his cast of outrageous puppets
Thursday, March 19th, 2:30pm and 5:30pm
Simcoe Street Theatre, Collingwood
On the night of the big storm, Adam finds himself “unplugged” with no cell phones or devices. Adam and his puppet friends ask everyone to use their imagination to adventure beyond the internet to a spectacular party with monster musicians, dancing pizzas, singing pineapples and a wise crackin’ lobster. Good for all ages. Geared for ages 3-8 years. Children under 3 yrs. FREE!

THE NEW CANADIAN CURLING CLUB
Written by Mark Crawford
May 12th - 16th
GNE Fairgrounds, Clearview
Four new Canadians from around the globe sign up for a weekly “Learn to Curl” class. Trouble is, their reluctant coach has some strong opinions about immigrants. What follows is the hilarious and inspiring story of a group of unlikely athletes who become a true team. A sweeping comedy that lands right on the button!

A NIGHT IN VEGAS
Featuring Thom Allison & Micah Barnes w. accompanist Diane Leah
June 15th - 18th
First Presbyterian Church
Following his years in a capella group The Nylons, Micah Barnes has continued to entertain with his rich, soulful, baritone voice to music fans around the world. Thom Allison is a powerhouse musical theatre star, Broadway performer, and regular on the popular TV sci-fi series Killjoys. Featuring the music of Sammy Davis Jr, Tony Bennet, Judy Garland, Frank Sinatra and more, this will be a night of outstanding music and performance!
ROCK & ROLL IS HERE TO STAY
Starring Leisa Way
July 21-25th
Marsh Street Centre, Clarksburg
Leisa Way & The Wayward Wind will keep the classic rock flame burning in this high energy show. From Buddy Holly, Chuck Berry, The Beatles & Elvis, to Carly Simon, Carole King, Bruce Springsteen, Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, The Doors, Fleetwood Mac, Led Zeppelin, Linda Ronstadt, & Sting, this show is bound to thrill! Leisa will also introduce a new performer in her group for this show!

THE FLY FISHER'S COMPANION
By Michael Melski
August 11-15th
Location: Marsh Street Centre, Clarksburg
Optimistic poet Wes and testy businessman Don have returned to the fishing lodge they built 50 years ago, for one last trip to cast their lines into Cape Breton’s Margaree River. While Wes is hoping to reel in a few big ones, he has other fish to fry!

MARY OF SHANTY BAY
Written by Leah Holder
September 29-October 3rd
Simcoe Street Theatre, Collingwood
This beautiful and historical story was created from the diaries of Mary Sophia Gapper, who visited Canada in 1828, married Edward O’Brien, and then settled at the “edge of the world” in Oro Township. This is a heartwarming examination of a part of our regional history.

THE MISSING PAGES
Written by Tom Allen
Friday, October 16th at 7:30pm
First Presbyterian Church, Collingwood
On December 16, 1825 Theodor Molt became the sole Canadian to meet Ludwig van Beethoven, but what could have happened between the two men? After Molt’s florid greeting in one of Beethoven’s notebooks, the following four pages were violently ripped out and destroyed. Betrayal? Competition? Scandal? Or just old fashioned ego and pride? With music, song, drama, history and informed speculation, The Missing Pages investigates.

EARLY MORNING RAIN
The Legend of Gordon Lightfoot
Starring Leisa Way and The Wayward Wind Band
Wednesday, November 18th, 2020 at 7:30pm
First Presbyterian Church, Collingwood
Spend the evening enjoying the incredible music of a Canadian legend, and sing along to such songs as: Sundown, Early Morning Rain, Canadian Railroad Trilogy, The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald, If You Could Read My Mind, Carefree Highway, Rainy Day People, Bitter Green, and more!

A STAGED READING OF “A CHRISTMAS CAROL”
December 18th, 2020 at 7pm
First Presbyterian Church, Collingwood
Celebrate the season with Theatre Collingwood and our annual staged reading of Dickens’ A CHRISTMAS CAROL. Local VIPs will voice the reading and will join you for refreshments at a reception following the show.